

COMMENDATION

ONE-CALL CARPENTRY LTD

One-Call Carpentry Ltd is a standout example of Ireland's modern service-led construction sector, earning the Business All-Star 2026 accreditation from the All-Ireland Business Foundation. Since its founding in 2021, the company has built a reputation for excellence in design and build services throughout Kilkenny and the South East.

Central to One-Call Carpentry's success is their commitment to performance. Specialising in home extensions, attic conversions, renovations, and commercial fit outs, they provide fully integrated solutions covering structural carpentry, electrics, plumbing, joinery, plastering, and groundwork with a single point of accountability. This end to end approach, managed by skilled and qualified craftsmen, ensures high standards, reduced delays, and fewer client frustrations throughout the project lifecycle.

Trust is deeply embedded in their practice. Clients appreciate working with a company that delivers on promises, adheres to health and safety guidelines, and communicates transparently at every stage. The absence of subcontractor hand-offs, combined with local presence and project accountability, fosters confidence and repeat business, qualities in line with the All-Star emphasis on governance and reliability.

In terms of customer centricity, One-Call Carpentry consistently places client needs at the heart of every project. From initial consultations through to final fit out, they tailor each build to the homeowner or business's vision. Whether delivering bespoke attic conversions, tailored kitchen renovations, or retail and restaurant fit outs, their team prioritises communication, flexibility, and finish. Positive feedback from Houzz and local reviews underlines their dedication to customer satisfaction and relationship building.

The All-Star accreditation process evaluates operational consistency and strategic capability alongside project outcomes. One-Call Carpentry's performance in managing complex conversions and multi-skill projects over a wide geographic area is a testament to their organisational strength and leadership.

Awarded the Business All-Star 2026 accreditation, One-Call Carpentry is now recognised as a benchmark within Ireland's building services sector. This status not only validates their craftsmanship but also elevates their profile among industry peers, clients, and regulators. It unlocks access to the AIBF's national business network, supporting further collaboration, innovation, and growth.

In summary, One-Call Carpentry delivers excellence in building, trust, and client service earning recognition that befits their integrated, polished, and high performance business model.

Congratulations!
